British Columbia MARRIAGE LAWS

Prior to your wedding date, you will need to obtain a marriage license. This license must be purchased in the province you will be married in. Only one member of the couple is required to apply for a marriage license, but he or she must apply in person and have two pieces of identification for both parties. Forms of identification include: birth certificate, driver's license, permanent resident card, citizenship card, passport. The marriage license is valid for three (3) months from the date of issue. In BC, a marriage license can be purchased from any BC Government Agent Office. There is a Service BC located at 5-1620 Peninsula Road, however it is advised to obtain the license prior to your arrival in Ucluelet.

Event Guidelines

Booking

We book our weddings one calendar year in advance. Once a wedding date has been confirmed, you will receive a wedding agreement with the details of your function and deposit information. A wedding is not confirmed until a signed agreement has been returned and an initial deposit has been paid.

All Ballroom venue rentals with late-night dancing will require the guest suites located directly above the ballroom to be booked by the wedding couple or their guests.

Holidays

Any event booked on an Canadian Statutory Holiday will be incur an additional labor charges assessed at $10 per person.

Noise

We reserve the right to ask that music be turned down at any time during the event should it be disrupting to hotel guests not attending the event. Noise complaints received due to excessive noise from the wedding guests after hours will be billed to the guest named on the room reservation. Please advise your guests of these potential charges and our noise policy. In-suite parties are not permitted.

Health Regulations

Due to health regulations, with the exception of wedding cakes produced in a commercial kitchen, both outside food products and the removal of any food product is not permitted from an event space.

Event Guidelines

Food and Beverage

Should outside alcohol be found in any event space, alcohol will be confiscated and penalty fees will be charged. A bartender will be provided free of charge, providing consumption is over $350 per bar. If the minimum is not achieved, a bartender fee of $30 per hour (minimum 4 hours) per bartender will be levied.

In accordance with B.C. liquor laws, all alcoholic beverages consumed in licensed areas must be purchased by the Resort through the B.C. Liquor Distribution Branch. Groups are not permitted to bring in their own liquor or beer into our event spaces. We do permit commercially produced wine with a corkage fee. Only guests 19+ may consume alcohol.

Entertainment and Décor

All signage and decorations must be pre-approved by the events team. Functions may be enhanced with décor, such as flowers, music & specialty linens. A diverse range of recommended resources and/ or vendors for these services are available. All deliveries must be coordinated through the Events team. The hotel will not permit the affixing of any materials to the walls, floors, windows, or ceilings throughout the property.

Please advise your guests that there will be a cleaning charge of $250 for showers of confetti, rice, flower petals or anything of this matter. This applies to the inside and outside areas of the property.
